The event

From May 23 to 26, 2023, the largest city in the Southern Hemisphere will also be the hub of the Latin American debate on innovation and development in the health industry. For the 30th time, São Paulo will host Hospitalar, the largest and most relevant event of the industry in the entire continent.

The news is that, in addition to the innovation and technology present in the exhibition area and congresses, as of 2023, the event will be held in the most modern exhibition center in Latin America: the São Paulo Expo, a venue with complete infrastructure and excellent location.

As a result of Hospitalar's permanent evolution and growth, the move to this new address will offer even more comfort and facilities for exhibitors and visitors - especially for those who want to participate in this great event and still enjoy the country's largest metropolis.

about the complex: São Paulo Expo
